FYI... some information of relevance to the BOSC discussions...

I was talking to Tom Brennan today and in passing the topic of joint meetings of the SAB and BOSC came up. You likely know this history, but the link below is an example of a 2012 joint SAB/BOSC review of "Implementation of ORD's New Strategic Directions." I attached the charge questions and consensus report. Whether the joint meeting model worked well, or could work well depending on the situation, is something I'd be interested in discussing.

Chris this is a good example of a joint meeting between SAB/BOSC (there have been a few over the years). Check out the charge questions for ideas of what is worthy of a collaboration.
